

Communiqué

du Président de l'APTPUC
from the CUPFA President

Dear CUPFA Members:

Although the winter session has just started, I am happy to present to you some of our winter 2019 programming. Please reserve some time in your agendas for the following CUPFA events:

January 31, SEXUAL MISCONDUCT, CONSENT, and the UNIVERSITY CLIMATE

6:00 pm, MB Building, 9th floor, rooms B,C,D

As you are likely already aware, CUPFA is producing and hosting this important panel discussion with the objective of furthering the discussion on pertinent issues from the perspective of the university campus.

The panel features award-winning women's rights advocate Julie Lalonde, renowned constitutional and human rights lawyer Julius Grey, (NEW) Brenda Austin-Smith, Vice-President, Canadian Association of University Teachers, and Concordia student leader Sophie Hough-Martin, with special guest Jennifer Drummond, Coordinator of the Sexual Assault and Resource Center; it will be moderated by CUPFA President Robert Soroka.

February 6, PENSION and FINANCIAL RETIREMENT PLANNING

4:45 pm, MB Building, 9th floor, rooms C and D

CUPFA invites you to attend an orientation on Pension and Financial/Retirement Planning, hosted by June Riley, Treasurer of CUPFA. Joining June will be certified financial planner and CUPFA member Nadine Parla.

Information packages will be distributed. Please RSVP your presence by February 1st at: <https://financialplanningcupfa.app.rsvpify.com/>.

February 6, THE UNDER 24 CREDITS CLUB – WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

6:00 pm, MB Building, 9th floor, room F

In this inaugural session devoted exclusively to CUPFA Members with fewer than 24 credits accumulated, we will address issues and respond to questions that are particular to those of you who are a little lower on our seniority list. Please RSVP your presence by February 1st at: <https://under24.app.rsvpify.com/>.

February 18, TOWN HALL

The winter installment of our popular Town Hall event is slated for Monday February 18, noon – 2:00pm, MB Building, 9th floor, room F.

Please RSVP your presence by February 11th at: <https://townhall4.app.rsvpify.com/>.

March 18, LIGHT LUNCH WITH YOUR CUPFA PRESIDENT ROBERT SOROKA

Noon – 1:45 PM, MB Building, 9th floor, room F

In this informal setting, drop in for a chat with CUPFA President Robert Soroka and enjoy a snack or coffee just before or after class.

March 18, SEMINAR: DEALING EFFECTIVELY WITH DIFFICULT STUDENTS

4:30 – 5:30, MB Building, 9th floor, room F

Hosted by CUPFA Member and noted speaker Sonia Di Maulo. Details to follow.
