Such information shall not be unreasonably denied.

b) Pre-Negotiation Remission Credits

To facilitate preparations for negotiations, the Employer agrees to assign twelve (12) credits in course remissions to the Association during the academic term immediately preceding the expiration of this Collective Agreement. Such course remissions to part-time faculty members of the Association shall not be subject to the limits prescribed in Article 10.18 or the averaging provision contained in Article 10.22.

c) One Year Negotiation Remission Credits

To facilitate the negotiation of this Collective Agreement and following the pre-negotiation stage specified above, the Employer agrees to assign an annual total of thirty-six (36) credits in course remissions during the period in which negotiations take place. Said remission credits shall not be issued beyond a one (1) year period from when actual negotiations begin. Such remission credits shall not be subject to limits prescribed in Article 10.18 or the averaging provision contained in Article 10.22.

d) Failure to Conclude Negotiations

If negotiations are not concluded after one (1) year from the start of the negotiation period, the parties agree that a mediator shall be appointed and mutually selected by the parties, with said costs paid by the Employer. e) Negotiation Remission Credits – Conclusion and Implementation

To facilitate the conclusion and implementation of negotiated text, final versions and ratification of this Collective Agreement, the Employer agrees to assign a total of nine (9) credits in course remissions per academic term for a maximum of two (2) terms, immediately following the one (1) year period in which negotiations have taken place or negotiations are concluded by a mediator.

a) No less than one (1) month prior to the beginning of each academic term, the Association shall provide the Employer with the names, in writing, of the Association representatives to whom the course remissions outlined in Article 7.19 are to be assigned. The designated representatives shall sign a course remission contract for each remission assigned.

b) The course remission contract shall include the following text: "the part-time faculty member is exempt from the obligations of this contract inasmuch as the part-time faculty member is acting as an Association representative. Course remissions are equivalent to the amounts of a three (3) or six (6) credit contract or multiples thereof and include remuneration, seniority credits, vacation pay, and all appropriate deductions."

c) Course remission contracts for service to the Association and for negotiation of this Collective Agreement shall be considered a factor in the evaluation of performance specified in Articles 9.01 and 10.16.

Service to the Association shall be considered as service to the University, Faculty, Department/Unit or community.

- 7.21 The Association shall provide the Employer, in writing, the names and positions of its executive officers and representatives, and shall inform the Employer of any changes within thirty (30) days. The Employer shall ensure all appropriate University offices are informed of the names and positions of the Association's executive officers and representatives.

- 7.23 All course remissions and credits used by the members of the Association's executive and/or its representatives in carrying out Association activities shall count toward the ongoing cumulative seniority of those individuals.

7.24 MERGERS AND CONSOLIDATIONS

The Employer shall ensure that all creations, mergers, consolidations, transfers or elimination of Faculties, Departments, Units, Institutes, Colleges or Programs will not have, or cause to have, the effect of eliminating, reducing or altering the rights or provisions conferred to part-time faculty members as contained in this Collective Agreement, and in particular, those rights relating to seniority pursuant to Article 8 and to Article 10.

7.25 CLASS SIZE, LARGE CLASS STIPENDS AND TEACHING ASSISTANTS

I. Class Size

a) Faculty of Arts and Science

With respect to courses taught by part-time faculty members, the Faculty of Arts and Science will continue to maintain class enrolment floors and ceilings, established in 1996-97 for special courses as follows: language courses, laboratory courses, production courses, seminar courses and graduate courses.

b) All Faculties

- i. Large class stipends shall be proportionally divided among instructors of a team taught course based on the hours of teaching by instructors in the team.
- ii. Large class stipends are based on the credit value of a course and will be proportionally adjusted to reflect the credit value of the course taught (e.g. teaching a six (6) credit course with a large class entitles a part-time faculty member to receive double the large class stipend).
- iii. Save for exceptional circumstances and for academic reasons, subject to the approval of the Dean, a part-time faculty member will not be required to teach a course at or beyond the 400 level with a registration in excess of 70 students.

II. Large Class Stipends (All Faculties)

- a) Part-time faculty members who are teaching 200 or 300 level courses, with fifty-six (56) or more students at the deadline for withdrawal (DNE) with tuition refunds as specified in the University Calendar, will receive additional compensation, integrated into the bi-weekly pay, as follows:

56 to 80 students:	$673
81 to 110 students:	$1,346
111 to 150 students:	$2,019

- c) Part-time faculty members who are eligible for large class stipends will be notified by the Department Chair/Unit Head of the course enrolments as of the DNE deadline.
- d) A list of students enrolled in courses shall continue to be provided by the Department/Unit to each part-time faculty member prior to the commencement of classes, and updated student lists shall be provided following the late registration of students.

III. Teaching Assistants

- a) In addition to the stipend, part-time faculty members teaching with a course enrolment of one hundred and fifty-one (151) or more students at the DNE deadline, will have the option of requesting the services of a Teaching Assistant. If the part-time faculty member opts to have a Teaching Assistant assigned for the entire term, she/he shall notify the Department Chair/Unit Head within one week of notification of the enrolment. In such a case, the Chair shall notify the part-time faculty member of the name and telephone number of the assistant hired by the Employer for such a purpose. A copy shall be sent to the Association by the Department/Unit.

- b) At the discretion of a Department, Chair/Unit Head, a Teaching Assistant may be provided for other courses, in consideration of teaching workload for instructors and delivery of the curriculum.
- c) The duties of Part-time faculty members in relation to Teaching Assistants are outlined in 9.01 d).
- d) If for any reason a Teaching Assistant resigns the Employer shall assign a replacement as soon as possible.

However, a part-time faculty member who is assigned a Teaching Assistant shall not be reprimanded for student grades assigned or for grading not completed by the Teaching Assistant.

7.26 ACCESS TO LIMITED TERM APPOINTMENTS (LTAS)

- a) A copy of the posting shall be sent to the Association at the same time it is posted or advertised.
- b) A part-time faculty member who has acquired fifty (50) credits of seniority or more and who applies for an LTA shall be short-listed and interviewed for such an appointment provided she/he meets the advertised qualifications.
- c) Individuals on an LTA may apply for part-time contracts only if their LTA has terminated prior to the application dates for part-time contracts (i.e. before March 10, May 20, or October 20), and provided that they do not appear on the classification list.
- d) A part-time faculty member who accepts an LTA may lose her/his seniority in accordance with the provisions of Article 8.06 b).

7.27 Members of full-time faculty, and University employees who, in their regular full-time administrative or similar positions, are employed as managers (including members of ACUMAE), superintendents, foremen or representatives of the University in its relations with its employees will, from the date of signing of this Collective Agreement, not be eligible to receive part-time contracts. Rather, courses attributed to these individuals as Adjuncts will be considered as Reserve Courses.

ARTICLE 8 SENIORITY

8.01 CALCULATION OF SENIORITY

A part-time faculty member acquires seniority, defined as the total number of credits attributed to the part-time faculty member, from the point of first hire at Concordia University or from the point of return to Concordia University after loss of seniority, whichever is later. The benchmark date for calculation of seniority is September 1974.

The parties agree that for the purposes of assigning seniority, a three (3) credit course represents between one hour and fifty minutes (1h50) and three (3) hours of classroom contact hours per week for thirteen (13) weeks or equivalent; and a six (6) credit course represents between one hour and fifty minutes (1h50) and three (3) hours of classroom contact time per week for twenty-six (26) weeks. Seniority credits are earned as follows:

- a) three (3) seniority credits earned for every completed three (3) credit course, and prorated by credits for courses of less than three (3) credits if offered: [e.g., a completed two (2) credit part-time contract earns two (2) seniority credits];
- b) six (6) seniority credits earned for every completed six (6) credit course, and prorated by credits for courses of less than six (6) credits if offered: [e.g., a completed four (4) credit course earns (4) seniority credits];
- c) Seniority credits proportionately earned and prorated by course credit (as per Article 8.01 and Article 18) for those part-time faculty members:
 - i) Who, without having been formally allocated the course, have replaced or substituted for another member of faculty on sick leave, jury duty or other emergency for more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the course;
 - ii) who teach a team taught course;
 - iii) who are required to conduct additional tutorials, labs, or seminars, beyond thirty-nine (39) hours;
 - iv) who teach beyond thirty-nine (39) hours for a three (3) credit course; and seventy-eight (78) hours for a six (6) credit course;
 - v) who teach fewer than twenty-four (24) hours for a three (3) credit course or fewer than fifty (50) hours for a six (6) credit course.
- d) pursuant to course remissions granted in accordance with Article 7.19, Article 16.04, and Appendix E;
- e) by virtue of service on departmental committees in accordance with Appendix E;
- f) pursuant to the specific credits attributed in a decision concluded in a grievance or arbitration;
- g) pursuant to Article 14.05 for credits which normally would have been earned prior to a deferred salary leave.

Where there is a difference between the credits listed in a document distributed by the University, the credits attributed for the same course to other part-time faculty members, and the part-time contract, the greater number of seniority credits shall be attributed.

The Employer will ensure that seniority credits are added to a part-time faculty member's seniority within fifteen (15) days following a final resolution and decision stemming from an Agreement, settlement, Letter of Understanding, grievance or arbitration decision. The Employer will also advise the appropriate offices in the University responsible for the Seniority List described in Article 8.07 ("Seniority List").

8.02 ACCRUAL OF SENIORITY

In order to ensure that part-time faculty members are eligible to receive the appropriate number of part-time contracts, seniority shall be accrued as follows:

- a) The total University seniority credits calculated as per Article 8.01.
- b) Part-time faculty members earn seniority in accordance with the credits specified on their part-time contract and University or Department/Unit course schedules.
- c) Part-time faculty members earn seniority credits in accordance with the credits specified on their course remission contracts. Such seniority credits are added to their University seniority.

8.03 PRESERVATION OF SENIORITY

Part-time faculty members shall preserve their seniority for the thirty-two (32) months following the end of the last academic term for which the part-time faculty member held a part-time contract or a course remission contract. Any hiatus is calculated as follows:

- a) The hiatus begins on the first day of the first month after the academic term (e.g., academic term ends April 27, the hiatus begins May 1).
- b) The hiatus ends on the first day in which the part-time faculty member begins teaching upon her/his return. Notwithstanding, a part-time faculty member whose thirty-two (32) month period would elapse by the end of December of a given year, who applied in the May hiring round, receives one or more course(s) in the Winter term, and completes the teaching of the course(s), shall preserve her/his seniority.
- c) Part-time faculty members are cautioned to apply for leave without pay in accordance with Article 14, if appropriate.
- d) Part-time faculty members who are absent from the University for more than thirty-two (32) months shall have their name removed from the Seniority List.

8.04 RETENTION OF SENIORITY

Notwithstanding Articles 8.02 and 8.03, a part-time faculty member retains her/his seniority in the following cases:

- a) for the duration of leaves specified in Article 14 and Article 15;
- b) for the duration of a grievance or arbitration procedure pending a final decision.

8.05 LOSS OF SENIORITY

Notwithstanding Articles 8.02, 8.03 and 8.04, a part-time faculty member loses her/his seniority if she/he is dismissed, unless the dismissal is overturned as a result of the grievance and/or arbitration procedure.

8.06 SENIORITY WHILE SERVING AS A LIMITED TERM APPOINTMENT (LTA)

- a) Part-time faculty members who accept LTA appointments shall not accrue seniority credits while serving on such appointment.
- b) Part-time faculty members who, by virtue of accepting LTA appointments, exceed the hiatus period specified in Article 8.03, and/or LTAs who have taught a Reserve Course per Article 10.24, shall have their names removed from the Seniority List.

8.07 SENIORITY LIST

The University shall maintain a Seniority List, by Department/Unit, to facilitate hiring within Departments/Units.

The Employer shall provide, by February 1 each year:

- a) a Seniority List to each Department Chair/Unit Head, with a copy to the Association.
- b) a Departmental Extract of the Seniority List to the respective Department Chair/Unit Head, with copies to the Association. The Department Chair/Unit Head shall make the Departmental Extract available to the members of the PTHC and, upon request, to each part-time faculty member whose name appears on the Departmental Extract.

The Departmental Extract is provided for informational purposes only. Any inconsistency between a departmental Extract and the Seniority List shall be resolved by giving precedence to the Seniority List.

The Seniority List shall be made available to part-time faculty members via the University portal.

8.08 FORMAT OF THE SENIORITY LIST

The Seniority List, by Department, shall include the following:

- a) current academic year;
- b) name of part-time faculty members;
- c) total number of seniority credits accrued as per Article 8.02;
- d) by department/unit of the total number of seniority credits mentioned in (c) for each department/unit in which the part-time faculty member has taught and for each remission credit the part-time faculty member has received. Any credit which cannot be attributed to a department/unit or to remission shall be accrued in a bank of residual credits ("credit bank");

- e) The University shall also endeavour to provide the Association with the end date of the most recent part-time contract or course remission contract awarded to each part-time faculty member on the Seniority List.

Departmental Extracts shall include items (a), (b), and (c) above, and item (e) when possible.

- 8.09 A part-time faculty member is responsible, in the academic year in which the Seniority List is issued, for ensuring the accuracy of her/his current seniority. Part-time faculty members must send written notification to the University offices responsible for the Seniority List of any possible errors or corrections. Such a notice shall also be sent at the same time to the offices of the Association. The Association will advise the University of any adjustments required in the Seniority List.

The University office responsible for the Seniority List will ensure that the Association, the Department Chair/Unit Head, and the part-time faculty member(s) affected receive, within fifteen (15) days, the adjusted or corrected Seniority List.

ARTICLE 9 DUTIES OF PART-TIME FACULTY MEMBERS

9.01 THE CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS OF PART-TIME FACULTY MEMBERS MAY INCLUDE:

- a)
 - preparing, organizing and presenting course material at scheduled class times and being available to students outside class hours;
 - directing and evaluating student progress in courses, i.e. grading assignments (including late completions), portfolios and examinations, providing feedback to students, submitting grades on time, invigilating examinations;

Such other duties may include, but are not limited to, labs, seminars, tutorials, student advising, supervision of research, and the management of field placements for internships. Such other duties shall be indicated on the contract along with the times, hours and seniority credits. Such other duties shall be compensated by seniority credits and/or remuneration not exceeding the prorated rates established in this Collective Agreement.
- c) A failure to include or indicate any additional duties and responsibilities as described in Article 9.01 (b) shall not nullify a part-time faculty member's right to remuneration and credits if the part-time faculty member was obliged to perform the additional duties and responsibilities.
- d) Part-time faculty members who are assigned a Teaching Assistant shall manage the Teaching Assistant in the performance of their duties.

ARTICLE 10 HIRING AND COURSE ASSIGNMENT

10.01 This article addresses University-wide policies and procedures on the hiring and re-hiring of part-time faculty members, Graduate Students and Adjuncts. Each Department/Unit may have a Departmental Hiring Document consistent with the terms of this Collective Agreement. Copies of hiring documents shall be sent to the Association.

- a) Only applicants who are defined as Canadian per the definition below at the time of application for a part-time contract shall be given consideration by the PTHC.

'Canadian' means a person who is a citizen of Canada, or who on the date of application for a part-time contract at Concordia University is a permanent resident, or holds a ministerial permit as a consequence of being a refugee or being prohibited from applying for permanent resident status.

Non-Canadians shall only be eligible to receive Reserve Courses as per Article 10.24, and therefore shall be classified as Adjuncts or Graduate Students.

- b) The Association shall receive copies of all correspondence from administrators, Offices of the Deans, directors, or Department Chairs/Unit Heads involving the allocation of part-time contracts.

10.02 HIRING AND RE-HIRING OF PART-TIME FACULTY MEMBERS

- a) The composition of the PTHC in Departments/Units shall consist of:

- two (2) full-time faculty members of the Department/Unit;
- two (2) part-time faculty members provided by the Association from the part-time faculty members of the Department/Unit; and
- the Department Chair/Unit Head, who shall not vote except in the case of a tie.

In exceptional situations, the Association may provide a part-time faculty representative from outside the Department/Unit.

- b) The parties can agree in writing to a smaller composition for a PTHC consisting of:

- one (1) full-time faculty member of the Department/Unit;
- one (1) part-time faculty member provided by the Association from the part-time faculty members in the Department/Unit; and
- the Department Chair/Unit Head who shall not vote except in the case of a tie.

The smaller composition for a PTHC can be used provided that:

- There are fewer than ten (10) individuals whose names appear on the Seniority List and who have held part-time contracts to teach in the Department/Unit in the current academic year or one of the previous two (2) academic years (or who have received seniority credits to serve on committees in the Department/Unit in the current academic year or one of the previous two academic years in accordance with the provisions of Appendix E)
 - The Chair/Unit Head certifies that that part time faculty member that will sit on the PTHC will not require his qualifications to be discussed.
- c) The Association may name an alternate in each Department/Unit to serve as required.
- d) If a part-time faculty member is a member of the PTHC in which her or his qualifications needs to be discussed for the allocation of a course, the part-time faculty member will leave the meeting for that discussion and vote to take place to resolve this situation of conflict of interest or perceived conflict of interest. To preserve the parity of the committee, a full-time faculty member (identified by a flip of a coin) will also leave the meeting for that discussion and vote.
- 10.04 PTHCs must hold meetings on-site for the allocation of courses, and the creation of a Waiting List. Under exceptional circumstances, the Association may agree to permit a PTHC to meet by telephone, video conferencing, or by email when it is not feasible for members of the PTHC to meet in person.
- 10.05 Part-time faculty members on PTHCs normally serve for a two (2) year term which may be renewed.

Faculties, in agreement with the Association, may elect each academic term to have all of their PTHCs meet on the same day to allocate part-time contracts. Thereafter, the parties shall agree on the modus operandi.

 - ii) They taught the course once, successfully, in the four (4) academic years preceding the academic year for which they are applying.
- b) Part-time faculty members who have successfully taught a course three (3) times or more are deemed to be professionally and academically qualified to teach the same course or a closely related course.
- c) Part-time faculty members who apply for courses outside their field must demonstrate their competence to teach the course.
- d) Part-time faculty members who have developed a course by virtue of Appendix H shall be deemed professionally and academically qualified to teach said course insofar as they have either successfully developed or successfully taught said course in the four (4) academic years preceding the academic year for which they are applying.

10.16 In the assessment of qualifications, the PTHC shall take into account work experience in the field, academic and/or professional background, awards or honours received, and course evaluations.

10.17 When two or more members with equal seniority have applied for the same sections, the PTHC shall divide those sections equally among them, to complete their course assignment for that phase.

If a section remains unassigned, the PTHC shall assign the section to the applicant with more teaching experience as measured by credits taught in the department/Unit.

If the two or more members have equal teaching experience, the PTHC shall assign the section to the applicant who has achieved the higher academic degree.

If the section remains unassigned, the section will be assigned randomly (by flip of a coin) to one of the members.

10.18 ALLOCATION OF COURSES

Course allocations and seniority credits for each academic year begin with the Summer term. In keeping with Article 10.10, the following course entitlement limits

- Part-time faculty members who have acquired ninety (90) credits or more of seniority may teach up to eighteen (18) credits per academic year.
- Part-time faculty members who have acquired twenty-four (24) credits or more of seniority but fewer than ninety (90) credits of seniority may teach up to twelve (12) credits per academic year.
- Part-time faculty members who have acquired less than twenty-four (24) credits of seniority, individuals who have lost their previously accrued seniority and new hires may teach a total of six (6) credits per academic year, notwithstanding the averaging provisions of article 10.22.

and the availability of courses to be assigned to part-time faculty members, courses shall be allocated within each Department/Unit in the following manner:

a) Phase 1

- i) Part-time faculty members who have acquired ninety (90) credits or more of seniority at Concordia University shall, in order of seniority, be assigned twelve (12) credits, if available.
- ii) Part-time faculty members who have acquired twenty-four (24) or more credits of seniority at Concordia University but fewer than ninety (90) credits shall, in order of seniority, be assigned six (6) credits, if available.
- iii) In cases where a course is partially in phase 1 and 2 it will be considered a phase 1 allocation if a maximum of one (1) credit of the course falls into the phase 2 allocation.

- b) Phase 2
 - i) Part-time faculty members who have acquired ninety (90) credits or more of seniority at Concordia University shall, in order of seniority, be assigned six (6) credits, if available.
 - ii) Part-time faculty members who have acquired twenty-four (24) or more credits of seniority at Concordia University but fewer than ninety (90) credits shall, in order of seniority, be assigned six (6) credits, if available.
 - iii) New hires and part-time faculty members who have acquired fewer than twenty-four (24) credits of seniority at Concordia University shall, in order of seniority, be assigned six (6) credits, if available. Part-time faculty members appearing on the seniority list who have applied to teach in the Department/Unit shall be assigned their full course entitlement, if they are qualified, before new hires are offered any courses.
- c) Part-time faculty members are responsible for ensuring they do not sign more part-time contracts than their entitled course load or course allocation. In the event that a part-time faculty member signs more part-time contracts than entitled as per Article 10.18, the Office of the Provost has the right to rescind any or all of the part-time contracts in excess of the entitlement.
- d) In a case where a part-time faculty member has applied to teach in more than one (1) Department/Unit, the respective Department Chairs/Unit Heads are responsible for ensuring that the part-time faculty member is not allocated more than their course entitlement in accordance with Article 10.18 and Article 10.19. The Department Chairs/Unit Heads shall also ensure that the phases in Article 10.18 are integrated across all Departments/Units so that the appropriate limits specified in each of the hiring phases are respected University-wide.
- e) Courses requiring extra contact hours (labs and extended hour courses) shall be allocated in the same manner as other courses in Article 10.18. However, the prorated seniority credits as posted for that portion of extra contact hours shall not be counted when such courses are distributed.
- f) Team taught courses shall be allocated by segment according to Articles 10.18 and 10.19.
- g) Courses requiring extra contact hours (labs and extended hour courses) shall be allocated in the same manner.

10.19 WAITING LIST

- a) The PTHC shall prepare a "Waiting List", pursuant to Article 10.18, which identifies all part-time faculty members who have applied to teach or have indicated their availability to teach, ranked by their standing in Article 10.18.

- b) The Department Chair/Unit Head, in written consultation with the PTHC, shall use the Waiting List to recommend the allocation of an unallocated, unposted, or newly available course to a member who is qualified to teach the course, but who did not receive her/his full allotment of courses as per Article 10.18. When consulted by the Department Chair/Unit Head, part-time faculty members on the PTHC shall respond in a timely fashion, failing which their consent shall be inferred.
 - c) There shall be one (1) Waiting List per Department (except where there is more than one, such as in Studio Arts, Education, and CMLL);
 - d) Each Academic Year starts with the summer semester;
 - e) An application to teach in a Department is defined as the submission within the deadline of a completed application on the FRIS. The member who submits an application on the FRIS with the relevant information will have their name and ranking on the Waiting list.
 - f) It is the responsibility of each Department to verify that the standing of the part-time faculty member as per Articles 10.18 to 10.22 is updated and accurate before assigning a course with the Waiting List. This assignment will take into consideration the courses allocated and the credit limits by seniority as specified in article 10.18.
 - g) A new Waiting List for the Academic Year shall be created at the conclusion of the PTHC meeting for the summer semester (held in the February 16-March 15 period) and is valid for the following Academic Year. The list contains the names of all the part-time faculty members who have applied to teach in that Department, ranked by their standing in Article 10.18. (i.e. their remaining allocation of courses for each phase). The list is kept up to date as courses are assigned and reviewed at each hiring round by adding, as appropriate, the names of all the part-time faculty members who have applied to teach or have indicated their availability to teach in that Department who are not already on the Waiting list.
 - h) Should there be no courses posted for a hiring period and no Waiting List created for the Academic year and if a course, or courses, is (are) offered after the posting deadline, the department will proceed with Articles 10.20 and 10.21 until the next hiring period.
- 10.20 Should the affected Department or Unit's Waiting List (per article 10.19) be exhausted and the course remain unallocated, the Department Chair/Unit Head, in written consultation with the PTHC, shall, in the provided order and as needed until a suitable candidate is identified:
1. Seek qualified candidates listed in the Departmental Extract offering the course to said candidates in order of seniority;
 2. Seek qualified candidates on the Seniority List, offering the course to said candidates in order of seniority;

3. Request from the Association a ranked list of internal suitable candidates, whose qualifications shall be assessed by the PTHC. Said list shall be compiled by the Association according to its internal policies.

Should the above process fail to identify a suitable candidate the Department Chair/Unit Head, in written consultation with the PTHC, shall, with due diligence, proceed with the following options, in any order:

- Seek a qualified external candidate; or
- Seek to assign an overload to a qualified member; or
- Seek an agreement with the Association for a course exchange in accordance with article 10.08.

- 10.21 Should the above outlined process fail to identify a suitable candidate, in the case of a course that was not posted in accordance with Article 10.08, the University shall, at its sole discretion, after written notification to CUPFA:

- Cancel the course; or
- Convert the course to a Reserve Course; or
- Assign the course to a full-time faculty member.

- 10.22 Notwithstanding the credit limits by seniority, the credit limits specified therein may be increased, in exceptional circumstances, by a maximum of one three (3) credit course in a given academic year. These extra credits in excess of the limits specified in Article 10.18 must be averaged over the next academic year's allocations. No overloads shall be permitted once classes have already started, unless the parties are in agreement. The aforementioned averaging provision shall not apply when the part-time faculty member has been asked to respond to an emergency situation. In such a case, the parties agree that:

- a) Emergency Overloads for part-time faculty members must be approved by the Association. Such approval shall be inferred five (5) days after the Association has received a request by electronic mail. If no negative response has been received from the Association, a contract may be issued thereafter. They are rare and should not become the norm in a given Department/Unit.
- b) In the case where an increase in credits for a member teaching Private Study in the Department of Music causes the member to go over the limits specified on Article 10.18, Article 3.03 of Appendix F-A shall apply.
- c) In order to qualify as an emergency, a situation must be the result of an unexpected and unplanned change in staff in a particular Department/Unit, for example, an unexpected illness of an individual scheduled to teach a course. In assigning courses in response to an emergency situation, the Department Chair/Unit Head must, in the first instance, use the Waiting List. Only when the list has been exhausted may the Department Chair/Unit Head either assign an overload, or hire an individual whose name does not appear on the Waiting List. In this situation, the credit limit may be increased by a single course (with a three (3), four (4) or six (6) credit value).

The above mentioned averaging provisions do not apply to the remission credits earned by part-time faculty members.

- 10.23 The Department/Unit shall post a list of part-time faculty members and course assignments by August 31, January 15 and April 30, with a copy sent at the same time to the Association.

10.24 RESERVE COURSES

Notwithstanding Article 2, for the purpose of Article 10.24, this definition applies:

10.24.1 "Course", for the purpose of establishing Reserve Course principles, means one (1) Concordia undergraduate or graduate three (3) credit course or section (disregarding additional contact hours), taught on or off campus, or via distance or electronic means (including eConcordia.com and online courses), allocated to members of full-time faculty (including, but not limited to, CUFA members and those holding positions excluded from the CUFA bargaining unit) as part of their workload, or taught in consideration for payment at the three (3) credit CUPFA Rate, CUFA Rate, or Discretionary Rate.

a. Number of Reserve Courses

The number of Reserve Courses shall be equivalent to 19.5% of the Course Equivalents assigned to part-time faculty members in the previous academic year.

Each Academic year, an estimate of the Course Equivalents taught in that academic year shall be provided to the Association prior to January 20. This estimate shall be used to calculate the projected number of Reserve Courses available for the following academic year.

b. Allocation

The total number of Reserve Courses shall be distributed by the Provost using a "Reserve Course Distribution List" and subject to the safeguard provision described in paragraph c.

The "Reserve Course Distribution List" shall be maintained and updated every year and provided to the Association and to PTHCs by May 1. The Reserve Course Distribution List shall identify the actual number of Reserve Courses used in the current academic year.

c. Notification of Reserve Courses

Notice of the projected Reserve Courses for the upcoming academic year will be posted, with a copy sent to the Association, by the Department/Unit by February 1 (for the summer sessions) and May 1 (for the fall, fall/winter and winter sessions).

In an academic year, increasing the number of Reserve Courses in a Department/Unit cannot have the effect of lowering the number of Part-time contracts in that Department/Unit.

Increasing Reserve Courses in a Department/Unit in a given year cannot have the effect, the following year, of lowering the number of Part-time contracts in that Department/Unit.

d. Classification

Classification of reserve faculty allocated Reserve Courses is as follows:

- i) Graduate Students at the diploma level (eligible to teach up to two (2) Reserve Courses per academic year during their two (2) year residency period. This residency period begins upon the date they are first awarded a Reserve Course);
- ii) Graduate Students at the master's level (eligible to teach up to two (2) Reserve Courses per academic year during their two (2) year residency period. This residency period begins upon the date they are first awarded a Reserve Course);
- iii) Graduate Students at the doctoral level PhD students (eligible to teach up to two (2) courses Reserve Courses per academic year during their four (4) year residency period. This residency period begins upon the date they are first awarded a Reserve Course);
- iv) Postdoctoral Fellows (eligible to teach up to three (3) Reserve Courses per academic year);
- v) Adjuncts (eligible to teach up to three (3) Reserve Courses per academic year).

Individuals teaching Reserve Courses shall not be provided Courses in overload.

Classification Lists are to be maintained according to the five classifications of reserve faculty. Classification of reserve faculty on current Classification Lists prior to the signing of this Collective Agreement, shall be corrected when required and transferred onto the new Classification List.

A Graduate Student who has previously been assigned a Course by a PTHC retains her or his status as a part-time faculty member.

No graduate student shall be permitted to teach part-time courses, as defined in Article 2, until their degree has been conferred.

e. Residency and Application to Change Classification

Information about the consequences of accepting the assignment of a Reserve Course per this Collective Agreement, under the form determined by the documents in appendix I-A for Postdoctoral Fellows and I-B for Adjuncts, shall be annexed to all Postdoctoral Fellow and Adjunct Reserve Course contracts offered by the Employer.

Changes in classification for Postdoctoral Fellows and Adjuncts teaching Reserve Courses shall be implemented on February 1 of each year.

Requests for change in classification by Postdoctoral Fellows or Adjuncts (to be eligible to teach as a part-time faculty member) shall be submitted to the Association with the use of the appropriate Change of Classification Forms contained in Appendix G.

Postdoctoral Fellows shall request change in their classification by written request after the end of their contract with the University.

Adjuncts – as of the signing of this Collective Agreement, changes in the classification of an Adjunct will be considered three (3) years after the termination date of their employment from the Employer, or after their last Reserve Course taught, whichever is later. Their names shall remain on the Classification List following their departure during this three (3) year period. Once an Adjunct becomes a part-time faculty member, they will not be eligible to teach Reserve Courses for a period of two (2) years following their last part-time course contract.

Changes in classification for graduate students at the diploma, masters or doctoral levels teaching Reserve Courses shall be implemented on February 1st and August 1st of each year.

The Employer shall remove the names of graduate students who have been awarded their graduate studies degree from the Classification List.

The Employer shall send the Classification List to CUPFA, shortly after updating it, and inform CUPFA of the degree the University has awarded them, and of the date at which the degree was conferred. At the same time, the Employer shall also provide CUPFA with access to the final list of graduating students.

Credits acquired via the teaching of Reserve Courses shall not be transferable onto the Seniority List established for part-time faculty members.

f. Remuneration

Remuneration for Reserve Courses shall be as follows:

- Graduate Students and Postdoctoral Fellows – at the prevailing CUPFA rate.
- Adjuncts (up to seventy-five (75) Reserve Courses) – at a Discretionary Rate.
- Adjuncts (remaining Reserve Courses) – at the prevailing CUPFA Rate or the CUFA rate.

No additional stipends are to be paid for teaching without the agreement of the parties, with the exception of the stipends for class size as per Article 7.25.

g. Sanctions

Infractions involving the Reserve Course Limit or the limit of Reserve Courses paid at a Discretionary Rate, shall be sanctioned as follows:

- i) an automatic penalty of five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each Reserve Course assignment which exceeds one or both of the aforementioned limits; and one or more infractions during an academic year shall entail a reduction of five (5) Reserve Courses for the subsequent academic year that will be applied to the overall limit, out of which at least one (1) must come from each Department/Unit involved in the infraction(s).
- ii) furthermore, second and subsequent infractions during the term of this Collective Agreement involving the same Department/Unit shall be subject to an automatic penalty of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each Reserve Course assignment which exceeds one or both of the aforementioned limits; and one or more infractions during an academic year shall entail a reduction of five (5) Reserve Courses for the subsequent academic year that will be applied to the overall limit, out of which at least two (2) must come from each Department/Unit involved in the infraction(s).
- iii) Other infractions shall follow the grievance procedure in this Collective Agreement.

h. Compensation

To compensate for the loss of revenue and to monitor Reserve Course activity, the Employer shall remit to the Association on the last pay period of each academic term (December, April and August), an amount calculated at the rate of two percent (2%) of the CUPFA Rate for each Reserve Course taught during the academic term.

i. LTA

Courses in a LTA contract in which all courses are allocated in only one of the Summer (/1), Fall (/2) or Winter (/4) terms, or in a full-time faculty post-retirement LTA contract, shall be classified, for the purpose of this Collective Agreement, as Reserve Courses assigned to an adjunct.

ARTICLE 11 EVALUATION

- 11.01 The Employer and the Association agree that the purpose of evaluating teaching is the improvement of instruction. Course outlines, course descriptions, pedagogical tools developed, student course evaluations, years of teaching experience and material contained in the Academic and Professional Services Dossier all form part of the teaching evaluation process.
- 11.02 Any part-time faculty member has the right to request a consultation with the Centre for Teaching and Learning or the offices responsible for conducting teacher training, and to receive assistance in teaching effectiveness.
- 11.03 Course evaluations shall be conducted by the Department/Unit through the Centre for Teaching and Learning. The results shall be given to the part-time faculty member and the Department Chair/Unit Head only. The use of evaluations shall be limited to the aggregate statistical information provided and used in a manner consistent with Article 11 and Article 12 of the Agreement. Only the part-time faculty member shall have access to the written comments contained within the evaluations. Written comments provided by students on course evaluations shall continue to be disseminated in typed-format by the Centre for Teaching and Learning.
- a) Course evaluations cannot be used as a ground for refusing to allocate a part-time contract unless the Department Chair/Unit Head has sufficiently notified a part-time faculty member of her/his previous difficulties in teaching.
 - b) Notification of teaching difficulties shall be based on the same criteria used to assess quality teaching for all other part-time faculty members of faculty in a Department/Unit.
 - c) The use of evaluations shall include the five (5) most recent years of course evaluations for part-time faculty members with more than ninety (90) credits of seniority and the three (3) most recent years of evaluations for part-time faculty members with less than ninety (90) credits of seniority.
 - d) In case of a grievance, results specified in Article 11.03 (b) and (c) shall also be provided to the Association. Results of any course evaluations will be made available to the Association by the Centre for Teaching and Learning or the offices responsible for teaching evaluations if these are required as per Article 13 of this Collective Agreement.
- 11.04 The parties agree that course evaluations involving team taught courses simultaneously are not a valid measurement of an individual part-time faculty member's teaching performance. In cases where team taught courses are taught by different members of faculty and in which a fixed number of classes is assigned to each member of faculty, each part-time faculty member involved in the team taught course will receive a separate teaching evaluation.
- 11.05 Evaluation results for courses in new programs or the introduction of a new pedagogical form shall not be used for re-hiring or disciplinary purposes until such time as teaching expectations, responsibilities, and/or performance criteria for such courses and programs are clearly elaborated and specifically communicated to a part-time faculty member.

11.06 The parties agree that caution shall be employed in the exclusive use of current course evaluations. The Employer and the Association agree to arrive at an understanding involving:

- a) the design and content of course evaluations throughout the University;
- b) equity in the use of course evaluations for all members of faculty who teach;
- c) sound methodological and statistical measurements for the validity and reliability of variables used in course evaluations;
- d) the development of course evaluations, as far as possible University-wide, which distinguish several variables: teaching performance, course content, student commitment, frequency of response, etc.; and
- e) the establishment of criteria for minimal teaching performance the next time course evaluations are reviewed.

11.07 Course evaluations cannot be used as a ground for refusing to allocate a part-time contract if new procedures and/or methods in evaluating teaching performance have been altered without the prior agreement of the parties.

11.08 Prior to the implementation of any changes in the method of evaluating teaching performance other than those specified in Article 11 by the Centre for Teaching and Learning, the Employer and the Association agree to collaborate in the development of any new form or method for assessing teaching performance. These new methods, procedures, or content shall include the criteria for teaching performance specified in Article 11.06.

ARTICLE 12 DISCIPLINE

Preamble

The Employer may investigate situations where it determines that circumstances warrant it. The Dean, his/her delegate, or an external party will conduct the investigation.

A notice of investigation will be sent by email to the Part-Time member with a copy to the Association.

12.01 The Employer may, in accordance with the provisions of Articles 12.02 and 12.03, discipline or dismiss a part-time faculty member for just cause. The Employer must advise the part-time faculty member and the Association of the disciplinary measure or dismissal by registered mail. Alternatively, if the Employer and the Association agree, the part-time faculty member can be advised at a meeting. The disciplinary measure or dismissal must specify the reasons justifying the Employer's decision.

- a) Only serious professional misconduct, demonstrable incompetence or repeated negligence of duties shall constitute grounds for dismissal.
- b) The Association may contest any disciplinary action or dismissal by filing a grievance as per Article 13.

The part-time faculty member has the right to request that the disciplinary measure or dismissal be sent by electronic mail instead of registered mail.

12.02 In the event the Employer and the Association agree to hold a meeting to hand a disciplinary measure or dismissal to a part-time faculty member, the part-time faculty member is entitled to be accompanied by a representative from the Association. A representative from Human Resources may also attend the meeting.

12.03 Part-time faculty members who have acquired at least twenty-four (24) seniority credits shall not be dismissed without having received two (2) written warnings. A reasonable time must elapse between each of the warnings and between the last warning and a dismissal. Part-time faculty members with fewer than twenty-four (24) seniority credits shall not be dismissed without having received one (1) written warning. A reasonable time must elapse between the warning and the dismissal. In all cases the written warnings must set out the specific reasons for the Employer's dissatisfaction.

- a) In order to be deemed a letter of warning according to the terms of this Article, the warning must be signed by the responsible Dean or her/his designated representative and identified as such. A copy shall be sent simultaneously to the Association.
- b) Any hearing conducted by a University body pursuant to a complaint against a part-time faculty member shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of natural justice and the duty to act fairly. An officer of the Association shall be invited at such hearings as an observer. The Association reserves its right to grieve any recommendation(s) made as a result of such a hearing.

- 12.04 A part-time faculty member may avoid further disciplinary action by remedying the situation which gave rise to the Employer's dissatisfaction.
- 12.05 After a period of eighteen (18) months has elapsed, any record of disciplinary action is considered null and void, and is removed from the part-time faculty member's academic and professional dossier by the University provided there has not been any disciplinary action in the interim and provided that the part-time faculty member has held at least one (1) part-time contract during that period.
- 12.06 Notwithstanding Articles 12.01, 12.02 and 12.03, the Employer may dismiss a part-time faculty member for just cause, without prior notice, when the gravity of the cause necessitates immediate dismissal. The Employer must advise the part-time faculty member and the Association of the dismissal by registered mail. Alternatively, if the Employer and the Association agree, the part-time faculty member can be advised at a meeting. The dismissal must specify the reasons justifying the Employer's decision.

The part-time faculty member has the right to request that the disciplinary measure or dismissal be sent by electronic mail instead of registered mail.

- 12.07 In all cases involving disciplinary measures and dismissal, the burden of proof rests with the Employer.

ARTICLE 13 GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION

- 13.01 A grievance shall be defined as any difference arising out of the interpretation, application, administration or violation of this Collective Agreement.
- 13.02 Grievances may be filed by the Association or by the Employer. The Association may file grievances on its own behalf or on behalf of an individual part-time faculty member or a group of part-time faculty members. All responses shall be sent by email and by internal mail. The delay periods in this article begin the day a grievance has been sent and end by 5:00 pm on the day that a reply is required.
- 13.03 The parties agree that all information required to present and prepare a grievance shall be available to both parties subject to the ethical and legal standards of confidentiality. Requests for the aforementioned information shall not be unreasonably denied.
- 13.04 The parties undertake to resolve all grievances expeditiously.
- 13.05 The parties agree that the submission of a grievance by the Association shall, under no circumstances give rise to reprisals against a part-time faculty member. Furthermore, the filing of a grievance shall under no circumstances adversely affect a part-time faculty member's future rights to employment and/or advancement in the University community.
- 13.06
- a) The parties agree that it is preferable to resolve grievances through discussions between those persons most directly affected before filing a formal grievance. To this end, a part-time faculty member is encouraged to discuss a potential grievance as soon as possible with the person to whom the part-time faculty member normally reports. While these discussions are encouraged, they shall not suspend the mandatory delays specified below.
 - b) The Association does not lose the right to grieve on any issue if, in the interests of conflict resolution, it approaches the Employer in writing with a view to negotiating an amicable resolution to the grievance.
 - c) Should the Employer or the Association decide to seek a declaratory decision on an interpretation of this Collective Agreement, the Employer or the Association shall file a grievance in accordance with Article 13.07 and shall clearly indicate that a declaratory decision is requested. Within fifteen (15) days of receipt of such a decision, the Employer or the Association may proceed to Internal Arbitration.

Stage I

- 13.07 The Association shall file a grievance in writing to the Office of the Provost. The Employer shall file a grievance in writing to the Office of the VP Grievances and Collective Agreement. event no later than twelve (12) months from the incident giving rise to the grievance.

- 13.08 A grievance shall specify which provision of this Collective Agreement has allegedly been violated and how this provision was violated. The grievance shall also indicate the remedy or remedies sought, including cash settlement, vacation pay, and/or seniority credits.
- 13.09 Within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the grievance, a response shall be provided to the other party. If the response is deemed unsatisfactory, the grieving party has the option within thirty (30) days of receiving the response to send the grievance to stage II or III.
- 13.10 At any time during the process, either party may request a meeting of the parties to discuss the grievance. Such request cannot be denied by the other party. The meeting will normally be held within thirty (30) days of the request for the meeting. Should a party request a meeting in accordance with this article, the grieving party's delay to send the grievance to Stage II or III shall be extended to fifteen (15) days after the meeting is held.

Stage II - Internal Arbitration

- 13.11 The purpose of proceeding to Internal Arbitration is to promote labour peace and to expeditiously render a decision in an unresolved grievance. The Arbitrator may either arbitrate or mediate the following issues:
- a) grievances which involve the administration or implementation of this Collective Agreement;
 - b) grievances which turn on the interpretation and application of this Collective Agreement;
 - c) grievances of a declaratory nature;
 - d) grievances which turn on alleged departures from the procedures of natural justice in the application of this Collective Agreement.
- 13.12 When the Employer or the Association has opted for Internal Arbitration in accordance with Article 13.09 or 13.11, the Employer or the Association shall stipulate whether a mediated settlement or a final and binding decision is requested. No lawyers representing the parties as counsel shall be present at such Internal Arbitration hearings with the exception of Association grievances that are identified as seeking a declaratory decision in accordance with Article 13.06 c).
- 13.13 Costs for all cases involving Internal Arbitration are shared equally by the parties.

Internal Arbitration Protocol

- 13.14 The Arbitrator shall ensure that a hearing does not exceed four (4) hours.

- a) Each party at the Internal Arbitration hearing shall be limited to two (2) representatives. However, the parties may call those witnesses whose testimony is deemed pertinent to their case.
- b) Not less than five (5) days prior to the hearing, the parties shall advise each other of the names of each party's representatives and witnesses.
- c) After hearing and examining the testimony and evidence submitted by the parties, the Arbitrator shall render a verbal reasoned decision at the conclusion of the hearing. The decision shall include, when applicable, financial awards and remedies (including payment, vacation pay, seniority credits, interest). A written reasoned decision shall be sent to the parties within fifteen (15) days of the hearing.
- d) The Employer or the Association agrees to implement the decision reached in Internal Arbitration within twenty (20) days following the expiry of the delay to proceed to Formal Arbitration, if applicable. In all other cases, the decision of the Arbitrator shall be implemented within twenty (20) days of receipt of the written decision.

Stage III - Formal Arbitration

- 13.15 Either Party may elect to proceed to Formal Arbitration for grievances which are not resolved by the Office of the Provost as per Articles 13.09 and 13.11.
- 13.16 Either Party may elect to proceed to Formal Arbitration following the decision of Internal Arbitration stemming from the application of this Collective Agreement or a declaratory decision. The party wishing to proceed to Formal Arbitration in such a case shall notify the other party within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the written Internal Arbitration decision.
- 13.17 The parties shall inform each other, not less than five (5) days prior to the hearing, of the names of their representatives at the hearing.
- 13.18 The costs for the arbitrator in Formal Arbitration are shared equally by the parties except in cases appealed from Internal Arbitration.
- 13.19 The Formal Arbitrator shall be called upon to arbitrate the following issues:

Such awards, settlements, and/or Letters of Agreement shall also be communicated to all the appropriate University offices responsible for their implementation.
- 13.22 The following arbitrators shall serve for the duration of this Collective Agreement as Internal or Formal arbitrators. By mutual agreement of the parties, an arbitrator may be removed from the list and replaced by a substitute:

Funds shall be allocated for actual expenditures and no funds shall be allocated as a stipend or salary paid to a part-time faculty member.
- b) Eligible applicants may request funds for activities involving the rental or purchase of materials, where relevant to their Department(s)/Unit(s) (e.g., computer software, inks, paper, paints, printing, recording media, studio rental paid to a third party) but no funds will be allocated for the purchase of equipment (computers, cameras, photocopiers, etc.). They may also receive funding for books, subscriptions, and association memberships relevant to the Department(s)/Unit(s) in which the part-time faculty member teaches.
- c) The parties agree that transportation costs, per diem costs for room and board, and travel expenses will be awarded according to the "Policy for Travel and Other Allowable Expenses" established by the Employer, unless:
 - i) such expenses by a part-time faculty member are less than the amounts established by the Employer and its travel carriers or agents; or

Such a request normally shall not be made to any one Faculty more than four (4) times per year.

- a) The parties recognize the diversity of course offerings, course schedules and course terms at Concordia University. To facilitate the application of this Collective Agreement, the total number of actual teaching hours per course, and the total number of preparation hours per course are calculated below:
 - b)
 - i) Part-time faculty members, without Student Class Assistants, are obliged to conduct, grade and invigilate their own examinations and to be available during the examination period. These obligations in Private Study in the Department of Music and for studio/production courses in the Department of Theatre are covered separately in Appendix F-A and Appendix F-B of this Agreement.

- d) Part-time faculty members who teach less than a total of 23.4 hours for a three (3) credit course and less than a total of 46.8 hours for a six (6) credit course shall be remunerated at the prorated hourly rate and receive the prorated seniority credits as determined for a three (3) or six (6) credit course respectively.

- e) Part-time faculty members who substitute for another member of faculty who is on leave shall have their hourly salary and credits prorated on the same basis of a regular three (3) credit or six (6) credit course.

For the purposes of conforming to the federal government's Employment Insurance Program and calculating total preparation hours, the parties agree to use the same norms established at Quebec universities for the calculation of the preparation hours considered for a three (3) and a six (6) credit contract. The current rate as of the signing of this Collective Agreement is two hundred twenty-five (225) preparation hours per three (3) credit course or four hundred fifty (450) preparation hours per six (6) credit course. - d) For the 2020/2021 academic year, the part-time contract remuneration per course will be raised 2.6% to $9,138.00 (which represents $9,869.04 including vacation pay). APPENDIX F-A – PRIVATE STUDY IN THE DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

All Private Study courses in the Department of Music shall be governed by the terms of this Collective Agreement. Courses described in this appendix shall also be governed by the following conditions:

Part-time Contracts, Seniority, Duties

- 1.01 Part-time contracts shall be allocated in the manner outlined in Articles 8, 9, and 10. They shall be the same part-time contracts used for all other part-time faculty members and shall contain the same information specified in Article 7 and Article 18. In addition, Article 4.04 (below) shall appear on each Part-Time Private Study contract.
- 1.02 Remuneration and seniority credits of part-time faculty members shall be subject to change until fifteen (15) days past the commencement of classes. Article 10.14 shall not apply to Private Study in the Department of Music in order to permit students and part-time faculty members to stabilize their class loads before said dates. Remuneration and seniority credits shall not be subject to change for any student adding or withdrawing from courses after this period.
- 1.03 Seniority for part-time faculty members in Private Study is earned and calculated under the following academic terms: for students registered in undergraduate Private Study courses, six (6) students equals three (3) credits for one academic term or six (6) students equals six (6) credits over two academic terms. Seniority is earned and calculated for AMPS 521 and 531 as five (5) students equals six (6) credits for one academic term and five (5) students equals (12) credits over two academic terms.
- 1.04 The Department of Music shall ensure that information forms are distributed to all incoming students well before any advising begins and that they contain a question to ascertain whether students wish to study with a particular member of faculty. Students shall be instructed to indicate the member of faculty with whom they wish to study or to leave blank if they do not know.
- 1.05 The PTHC shall have, as required, copies of all Departmental advising and information forms submitted by students that specifically request to study with a particular part-time faculty member.
- 1.06 Biographical summaries prepared by the part-time faculty members shall be available to all students on request.
- 1.07 A part-time faculty member's seniority will not be considered when a student specifically requests that part-time faculty member as the member of faculty with whom she/he wishes to study. Seniority shall, however, be considered in the allocation of students who have not specifically requested to study with a particular part-time faculty member.
- 1.08 All part-time faculty members in Private Study in the Department of Music are expected to prepare the student(s) for required juried concerts, examinations or the equivalent, and to adjudicate no more than three hours of juried examinations each academic year.

- 1.09 Whenever possible, a part-time faculty member will make an attempt to ensure that courses in Private Study are taught on University premises.
- 1.10 A part-time faculty member in Private Study shall be informed in writing of any extra duties required before the commencement of Private Study sessions.
- 1.11 Part-time faculty members will ensure that classes and hours as scheduled on their part-time contracts are maintained.

Posting of Courses

- 2.01 A Private Study course shall be subject to the posting provisions in the manner outlined in Article 10 except when a student specializing in a particular musical instrument registers for Private Study and requests a particular part-time faculty member.
- 2.02 The posting of courses outlined in Article 10.08 shall, in the case of the Department of Music, include, for information purposes only, the Private Study courses already allocated. The list shall include the name of the part-time faculty member, the Private Study courses allocated, and the corresponding number of student hours. A copy shall be sent at the same time to the Association.
- 2.03 Courses in the Department of Music other than Private Study shall be posted to correspond to the same value in hours and seniority credits as courses throughout the University in accordance with Article 8.

Allocation of Courses and Part-time contracts

- 3.01 The potential number of Private Study students whom the part-time faculty member may instruct is determined by the PTHC according to the part-time faculty member's credit limit as specified in Article 9 and by seniority in Article 8. The PTHC shall take into account the number of Private Study students already allocated to ensure that additional allocations of students do not exceed the credit limits of course allocation specified in Articles 9 and 10 of this Collective Agreement.
- 3.02 A list of part-time faculty members shall be prepared in accordance with Article 10.18 and Article 10.19 for those part-time faculty members who teach both courses and Private Study courses. The list as indicated in Article 10.19 shall be created at the end of May and shall be revised again at the end of August. Part-time faculty members who apply for courses they did not receive shall have said courses indicated on the preliminary Article 10.19 list in May. Private Study load will be considered only at the end of August. The PTHC will reconvene as necessary to ensure that part-time faculty members receive their entitled course loads.
- 3.03 In the case where a member has been attributed students following a formal request on the students' part (article 1.07 of this Appendix) causing the member to go over the credit limits specified in article 10.18, no approval by the Association as determined in article 10.22 shall be needed. These extra credits will be averaged over a subsequent academic year's allocations only when the member has cumulatively banked a total of three (3) credits or more over the limit specified in article 10.18.

The limits specified in article 10.18 may only be increased by a maximum of three (3) credits in a given academic year.

The emergency overload procedure described in article 10.22 shall not apply.

Remuneration

4.01 A part-time faculty member allocated Private Study courses shall receive the same remuneration for a three (3) credit course, or multiple thereof, as other part-time faculty members in conformity with Article 8 and Article 18. Courses exceeding six (6) seniority credits per year shall not be assigned to an Adjunct.

4.02 Remuneration shall be calculated on the following basis for part-time faculty members teaching Private Study courses:

i)	Undergraduate Private Study courses	Six (6) students = three (3) credits for one academic term, at sixty (60) minutes per week, for thirteen (13) weeks
ii)	Undergraduate Private Study courses	Six (6) students = six (6) credits for two academic terms, at sixty (60) minutes per week, for twenty-six (26) weeks
iii)	AMPS 521 and 531	Five (5) students = six (6) credits for one academic term, at one hundred twenty (120) minutes a week, for thirteen (13) weeks
iv)	AMPS 521 and 531	Five (5) students = twelve (12) credits for two academic terms, at one hundred twenty (120) minutes a week, for twenty-six (26) weeks

4.03 Private Study courses shall not exceed or fall below the minutes allocated in 4.02 above.

4.04 Should part-time faculty members be required for auditions for students that are not under their supervision, and/or to serve as an accompanist, remuneration shall be consistent with all other individuals required to perform similar duties, but not be less than the hourly rate for extra student contact time as per article 18.01 c).

Representation and Integration

5.01 Given a willingness to serve, part-time faculty members who teach in the Department of Music shall be appointed or elected by the Association to sit as voting members on the following departmental committees: PTHC, Departmental Council, Advisory Search Committee for Department Chair, and Curriculum Committee. Each committee shall have no fewer than two (2) part-time faculty members.

- 5.02 Part-time faculty members shall also be invited to sit on all Departmental Council subcommittees.
- 5.03 To ensure their participation at departmental committee meetings, the Department will consult sufficiently in advance with part-time faculty member representatives sitting on committees. Notices of meetings and agendas shall be distributed in a timely fashion.
- 5.04 Meetings for all committees will take place on site rather than electronically. Under exceptional conditions, all of the members of a committee may agree to a different arrangement.
- 5.05 Changes to the curriculum in Private Study courses shall not alter the terms or conditions of this Collective Agreement.
- 5.06 Changes to the curriculum in Private Study courses shall not be made without the direct consultation of appropriate part-time faculty member teaching Private Study.

LETTER OF AGREEMENT
BETWEEN CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY ("University")
AND
THE CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY PART-TIME FACULTY ASSOCIATION
("CUPFA") REGARDING
eCONCORDIA

WHEREAS the Collective Agreement signed between the University and CUPFA on March 16, 1998 (hereafter "1997-2002 CA") expired on April 15, 2002 but has remained in full force and effect pursuant to article 59 of the Quebec Labour Code and article 24.03 of the 1997-2002 CA, pending the negotiations regarding a new Collective Agreement;

WHEREAS the University and CUPFA have negotiated a new Collective Agreement ("2002-2012 CA") the English version of which is executed and signed simultaneously with the signature of the present Letter of Agreement ("LOA") and to which the present LOA is annexed to form an integral part thereof;

WHEREAS the University and CUPFA have signed into a tripartite Letter of Agreement with eConcordia on April 15, 2004;
(Wording corrected as per Letter of Agreement dated January 22, 2010)

WHEREAS pursuant to paragraph 3 of the abovementioned tripartite LOA, the 1997-2002 CA is to be applied integrally with respect to "regular" part-time faculty members teaching eConcordia courses, as well as to all other individuals teaching eConcordia courses, with the exception of members of full-time faculty working under the terms of the CUFA Collective Agreement;

WHEREAS the University and the Concordia University Faculty Association (CUFA) have signed a tripartite Letter of Agreement with eConcordia on September 9, 2008, wherein it is stated that "The provisions of this LOA shall not apply in the case of contracts signed by members with eConcordia prior to the signing of this LOA";
(Wording corrected as per Letter of Agreement dated January 22, 2010)

WHEREAS the parties wish to be clear about how to account for courses delivered through eConcordia, particularly with respect to the Reserve Course limit (as defined in paragraph 2 of Schedule X) and the limit on the use of the Discretionary Rate (as defined in paragraph 9 of Schedule X);

WHEREAS the University and CUPFA wish to resolve the issues between themselves regarding eConcordia courses as they bear upon the application of the 2002-2012 CA, and in particular, Reserve Courses, as defined in Schedule X;

WHEREFORE the parties agree as follows:

1. Preamble: The above preamble forms an integral part of the present LOA;
2. Definitions: For the purposes of this LOA:

'eConcordia Course' means one (1) Concordia undergraduate or graduate three (3) credit course or, if the course has more than one section, a section thereof, delivered through eConcordia on behalf of University and taught in consideration for payment at the three (3) credit CUPFA Rate, CUFA Rate, or Discretionary Rate, as each are defined in Schedule X of the 2002-2012 CA.

'eConcordia Reserve Course' means an eConcordia Course that qualifies as a Reserve Course as defined in Schedule X. Hence, members of full-time faculty (including, but not limited to, CUFA members and those holding positions excluded from the CUFA bargaining unit) teaching eConcordia Courses as part of workload are not covered by this LOA.

'Part-time faculty member', as defined Article 2 of the 2002-2012 CA, means a person included in the CUPFA bargaining unit, as defined in the accreditation certificate, and as classified by the 2002-2012 CA.

'Adjunct', as defined Schedule X of the 2002-2012 CA, means an individual who is assigned a Reserve Course under the provisions of Article 10.24 and Schedule X, and who is not a Graduate Student. Such definition shall include, but is not limited to, extra teaching by full-time faculty, and individuals previously classified under the 1997-2002 CA as Adjuncts, F.A.L.R.I.P. Adjuncts, Professional and Industrial Adjuncts, Managers, Directors, and Senior Administrators assigned a Reserve Course.

'Graduate Student', as defined in Schedule X of the 2002-2012 CA, means a University master's student or doctoral student who has been assigned a Reserve Course as per Article 10.24 and Schedule X.

3. Scope: This LOA covers only credit eConcordia Courses prepared for and delivered through eConcordia on behalf of the University. This LOA does not cover any other activities that may be undertaken by eConcordia such as offering non-credit courses on behalf of the University, offering credit or non-credit courses other than through the University, or providing corporate training or other courses of a similar nature.
4. Jurisdiction: For part-time faculty members, the delivery of eConcordia Courses shall be governed by the provisions of the relevant articles of the 2002-2012 CA.

For Adjuncts and Graduate Students, delivery of eConcordia Courses shall be governed by the provisions of Schedule X in the 2002-2012 CA. Hence, eConcordia Reserve Courses shall be factored into the baseline usage of 2009-2010 as referred to in the safeguard provisions of Schedule X.

5. Computation of eConcordia Reserve Courses: eConcordia Reserve Courses shall count against the Reserve Course Limit (RCL), which is set out in Schedule X, as follows:

- a) All eConcordia Reserve Courses shall be subject to the provisions of Schedule X, including the safeguard provisions detailed in paragraph 6 thereof.
- b) One Reserve Course for each eConcordia Reserve Course delivered in an academic term, with the understanding that:
 - i) In setting the initial RCL of 450 in Schedule X, the number of eConcordia Reserve Courses counting against that RCL is thirty-three (33);
 - ii) Should the RCL be exceeded due to additional eConcordia Reserve Courses (beyond the 33) being delivered during an academic year, this shall result in an additional equivalent allowance of Reserve Courses beyond the RCL for that academic year only. (Example: If there are 34 eConcordia Reserve Courses, the RCL for that year would be increased to 451.)
 - iii) Similarly, there shall be a corresponding increase in the total number of Reserve Courses that are available to be paid at the Discretionary Rate (initially 75) for that academic year only, such that the 75 shall be increased by the exact increase in the RCL. (Example: If there are 34 eConcordia Reserve Course, the Discretionary Rate limit of 75 would be increased to 76 for that year.)
 - iv) At the conclusion of the academic year in which this temporary allowance is applied, the RCL shall revert back to the RCL reported to the Association on the May 1 of that academic year, and the computation of the RCL for the subsequent academic year shall be conducted according to the process outlined in paragraph 2 of Schedule X.
 - v) Only the delivery portion of eConcordia Reserve Courses shall count against the RCL. The preparation of an eConcordia course shall not count against the RCL.
 - vi) All six (6)-credit eConcordia Courses shall count as two eConcordia Reserve Courses. The Parity Committee set out in Paragraph 6 shall address issues regarding prorating of eConcordia Reserve Courses that are neither three (3) nor six (6) credit courses.
 - vii) Article 7.25 of the Collective Agreement shall apply to eConcordia courses taught by part-time faculty members.

- 6. Sanctions: Any infraction involving the Employer exceeding the RCL (initially 450) or the limit on the number of Reserve Courses available to be paid at the Discretionary Rate (initially 75) shall not be penalized by recourse to the sanction provisions in Schedule X, paragraph 10. Rather, in the event of such an infraction, the parties must, prior to proceeding with any grievance, refer such infraction, or any dispute or disagreement about the interpretation, the application or scope of the present LOA, to a Parity Committee comprising two representatives of the University and the President and Vice-President, Collective Agreement and Grievance.

Notwithstanding the above, no event or series of events relating the application of the present LOA occurring during the 2009/2010 academic year shall give rise to a grievance or grievances.

- 7. Intellectual property and copyright: Material prepared by a part-time faculty member for delivery through eConcordia on behalf of the University shall be considered intellectual property under the provisions of Article 4 of the 2002-2012 CA, and in particular Articles 4.05 to Article 4.14.
- 8. Seniority, duties and responsibilities, and hiring and course assignment: For purposes of clarity, part-time faculty members delivering eConcordia Courses shall be governed by the provisions of the relevant articles of the 2002-2012 CA, particularly as follows:

 - a) Seniority shall be treated in the same manner as described in Article 8;
 - b) An eConcordia Course shall be considered a contractual obligation for the purposes of Article 9.01 and shall be treated in the same manner as other courses for the purposes of the remainder of Article 9;
 - c) eConcordia Courses shall be posted and allocated, and contracts shall be issued, as described in Article 10;
 - d) eConcordia Courses shall be compensated in accordance with paragraph 10 of this LOA;
 - e) eConcordia Courses shall be governed by the normal policies of the academic unit with respect to Article 7.25 and Article 19.05, which address the provision of teaching assistance and the selection, monitoring and compensation of teaching assistants, where warranted.
- 9. Evaluation: For part-time faculty members, the evaluation of eConcordia Courses delivered through eConcordia on behalf of the University shall be governed by the provisions of Article 11 of the 2002-2012 CA. Relevant material from eConcordia teaching shall be included in the Academic and Professional Service Dossier described Article 10.11 of the 2002-2012 CA. In the event that an eConcordia Course is delivered by a part-time faculty member other than the one who prepared the eConcordia Course, the evaluation shall distinguish between the preparer and deliverer of the eConcordia Course.
- 10. Compensation: Compensation for preparation and/or delivery of an eConcordia Course by a part-time faculty member shall be governed by the following provisions:

 - a) Preparation: part-time faculty members contracted to develop an eConcordia Course shall be remunerated in an amount not to exceed the applicable CUPFA Rate, as defined in the 2002-2012 CA.

- b) Delivery: where the work required for an eConcordia Course is equivalent to that required for the delivery of an equivalent University course (as defined in Article 2 of the 2002-2012 CA) taught in a classroom, no additional compensation shall be paid to the part-time faculty member, and the eConcordia Course will be remunerated at the applicable CUPFA Rate as defined in the 2002-2012 CA.

Compensation for delivery of an eConcordia Reserve Course by an Adjunct or Graduate Student shall be governed by Schedule X.

- 11. Discipline, grievance and arbitration: The provisions of Articles 12 and 13 of the 2002-2012 CA shall apply to all eConcordia Courses taught by part-time faculty members.
- 12. Existing rights: The provisions of this LOA shall not apply in the cases of contracts signed prior to the signing of this LOA. The University shall hold no retroactive liability for eConcordia Courses prepared or delivered prior to the signing of this LOA. Any renewal of such existing contracts, or new contracts signed after the date of the signing of this LOA, shall be governed by the terms of this LOA and the 2002-2012 CA.
- 13. University policies: Relevant policies of the University shall apply as appropriate, including in particular the provisions of the Academic Code of Conduct and the Code of Rights and Responsibilities.
- 14. Term: This LOA shall bind the parties hereto from the date of its signature and thereafter for as long as Schedule X remains in force.
- 15. Severability: Should one (1) or more paragraphs of the present LOA be declared null and void or unenforceable by a court of law, such a declaration shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the other paragraphs of the LOA.

INTERNAL MEMORANDUM

To: Ms. Maria Peluso, President, CUPFA

From: Jack Lightstone, Provost and Vice-Rector, Research

Date: June 28, 2000

Subject: Article 11.06 - Criteria, Purpose and Use of Course Evaluation

I am pleased to return to you a signed copy of the agreement on the Criteria, Purpose and Use of Part-time Course Evaluations in accordance with Article 11.06 of the CUPFA Collective Agreement. I have retained the other copy which I shall send to Marcel Danis for his files.

I do have one commentary but I did not think it necessary to ask for a change in the agreement in order to accommodate my concern. It pertains to the second bullet under "Summary of Results for Each Question" on page two. The sentence refers to Department/Sector. I have misgivings about the validity of aggregate results for a number of departments due to the significant variation of size from one department to another. Therefore, in order to use the University's money to generate the most meaningful aggregate results, I have asked that aggregates be computed by sector. The disciplinary sectors which make the most sense to me are: Humanities; Social Sciences; Sciences; Commerce and Administration; Engineering and Computer Science; Fine Arts.

I think this exercise of trying to agree upon a questionnaire has been a most positive one and I am very pleased with the results. I look forward to working with CUPFA on this matter in the future as we institute, and over the years, perfect, this valuable instrument.

The parties have an obligation to provide a means for formative evaluation of courses as taught by part-time faculty throughout the University. Course evaluations shall be used in a manner consistent with Articles 10, 11, and 12 of the CUPFA Collective Agreement.

In the spirit of Article 11.06, the parties agree that, every three years, and in any case, before the expiry of the Collective Agreement, the Employer and the Association will review and revise as necessary their understanding concerning the methodology and content of course evaluations.

The objective of course evaluations is to provide Departments and individual Instructors a guide to enhance the effectiveness of a course. The ultimate purpose of any teaching assessment serves to promote sound pedagogy.

Distribution

Course evaluation forms shall be made available to Instructors for distribution in their courses at least five weeks before the last of day of classes. Instructions for class distribution by a student class representative shall be provided to the instructor, who is responsible for assuring that the evaluation is distributed in class by the student representative.

Content

The course evaluation for part-time faculty shall consist of 19 questions as indicated in the enclosed course evaluation. Additional open-ended questions may be added by the Instructor or a Department however, these results are outside the scope of an assessment of course effectiveness.

Methodology

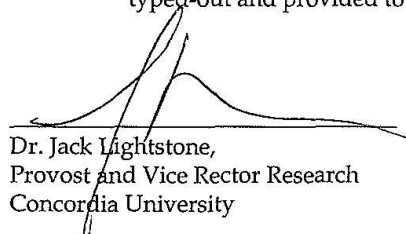

Statistical results indicating median scores, bar-graphs, and the criteria ranges for each question shall constitute the measurements used for the assessment of courses taught. The Association and the Offices of the Provost and Vice Rector Research will review and revise the criteria ranges after a three-year period.

The following are the criteria ranges and the appropriate flagging for each range. The notation is printed in full for each item or the table is printed in full at the end and the individual items marked with an abbreviated indicator.

Range	Notation for this category on evaluation report
1.0 to 1.5	"Well above average. The Instructor and Department Chair/Head deserve commendation."
1.6 to 2.4	"Above average. The Instructor and Department Chair/Head are to be congratulated."
2.5 to 3.4	"Average. Instructor and Department Chair/Head might wish to explore available resources for further development."
3.5 to 3.9	"Below average. Instructor and Department Chair/Head should consult about actions for needed improvement."
4.0 to 5.0	"Well below average. The Instructor and Department Chair/Head must consult regarding immediate remedial measures."

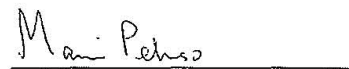

Summary of Results for Each Question

- Number of respondents
- Aggregate results of the overall questions (questions 1, 2, 3) by Department/Sector are provided to the offices of the Provost and Vice Rector Research. Aggregate results shall not be used for the assessment of individual instructors.
- Aggregate results shall also be provided to the Instructor.
- The median for each response shall be provided to the Instructor and the Department Chair/Unit Head.
- Bar-graphs by interval shall be provided to the Instructor and Department Chair/Unit Head.
- The notation for criteria ranges and the appropriate flagging for each range are printed in full for each question or a table is printed in full at the end and the individual questions marked with an abbreviated indicator.
- Summaries for any question shall not include standard deviations nor Departmental means.
- Any written comments provide to the open questions (18 and 19) shall be typed-out and provided to the Instructor only.
