

*May we who are merely inconvenienced
remember those whose lives are at stake.*

May we who have no risk factors remember those most vulnerable.

May we who have the luxury of working from home remember those who must choose between preserving their health or making their rent.

May we who have the flexibility to care for our children when their schools close remember those who have no options.

May we who have to cancel our trips remember those that have no place to go.

May we who settle in for a quarantine at home remember those who have no home.

*During this time
when we cannot physically wrap our arms around each other, let us yet find ways to be the loving embrace to our neighbors.*
